The Oath of IATOR: The Superhero Creed™

“With great power comes great responsibility”

Based on the 21 principles of the Oath of IATOR, Executives learn to unleash all their powers and apply these universal principles to crush decision making villains and ignite real life leadership solutions

IATOR stands for... “I am the one responsible”.

As leaders in your area of personal and professional influence you must take responsibility not only for the quality of your own life’s direction but also for the lives of many others. As one of life’s “Guardians” you must be ready to accept this responsibility and the principles that go with your role.

Executive leaders will learn...

The 21 principles of the oath of IATOR including Tenacity, Integrity, Courage, Strength and Solidarity and how they relate to the leadership solutions.

The atmosphere will be...

Dynamic, fast paced, creative, fun and to the point.

Executives will take away...

Strategies to become physically and emotionally more powerful leaders.

A more confident approach to decision making.

A greater sense of responsibility to themselves and to those who depend on them.
